Imus Marks 35 Years at Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Fullerton Division Superintendent Guy Imus was recently recognized for 35 years of service to Loup Power District.

Imus joined Loup in 1985 as an Apprentice Lineman at Fullerton. He was promoted to Lineman in 1986 and to Journeyman Lineman in 1989. Imus was named Cedar Rapids Local Superintendent in 1991. He was promoted to his current position of Fullerton Division Superintendent in 2015.

As Fullerton Division Superintendent, Imus oversees the operation and maintenance of Loup's electric transmission and distribution system in the Fullerton Division service area including Fullerton, Belgrade, St. Edward, Cedar Rapids, Primrose, Genoa, and Monroe.

Imus is a native of Belgrade and a graduate of Fullerton High School. He earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Utility Line from Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Imus and his wife, Vickie, are the parents of two children: Jeremy and Caitlin.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County.
