

PRESS RELEASE

Stacy Wemhoff
Communications Coordinator
swemhoff@loup.com
(402) 562-5711

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
3/1/19

Loup Power renews memberships

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Loup Power District renewed its membership in Community Clubs and Chambers of Commerce in towns throughout its service area.

Checks totaling $30,414 were presented to communities in Boone, Colfax, Nance, Platte, and Madison counties. Payment amounts are based on the 2018 gross revenues inside each community.

“Membership renewal demonstrates Loup Power District’s commitment to community involvement in all of our area towns,” said David Bell, Vice President of Development/Marketing for Loup Power District.

Towns and their payments include:

Albion Chamber of Commerce — $1,598
Cedar Rapids Community Club — $488
Clarkson Commercial Club — $611
Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce — $21,385
Fullerton Chamber of Commerce — $1,097
Genoa Chamber of Commerce — $797
Howells Community Club — $634
Humphrey Community Club — $670
Lindsay Community Club — $1,421
Leigh Community Club — $100
Newman Grove Community Club — $605
Petersburg Community Club — $313
Primrose Community Club — $100
St. Edward Community Club — $595

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and recreational services in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.