Sharman Promoted to Full-Time CSR

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Natalie Sharman of Fullerton has been promoted to a Full-Time Customer Service Representative at Loup Power District.

Sharman has served for more than three years as part-time CSR in the St. Edward Office. With this promotion, she will now serve in both the Fullerton and Albion offices. Ginny Johnson of Genoa will serve customers in the afternoon in St. Edward.

As a Customer Service Representative Sharman's responsibilities include greeting customers; processing payments; setting up, transferring, or closing service; taking service calls; and preparing reports.

Sharman is a native of Cambridge and a graduate of Cambridge High School. She attended the University of Nebraska -- Kearney studying business and marketing.

Sharman and her husband, Les, are the parents of two children, Braden and Kinzie. They also own Shamz Auto Body in Fullerton.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
