Gottsch Marks 25 Years at Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Scott Gottsch of Monroe was recently recognized for 25 years of service to Loup Power District.

He joined Loup in 1998 as a Maintenance Man at the Genoa Headworks. In 2000, he was promoted to Carpenter/Utilityman on the Canal Crew based out of the Columbus Service Center.

Gottsch was promoted to Headgates Operator at the Genoa Headworks in 2008 and transferred to the position of Storekeeper I in 2016.

As Storekeeper, Gottsch's duties include purchasing, storing, and issuing materials and stock for projects across Loup's service area. These materials include power poles, connectors, and wire.

Gottsch is a graduate of Monroe High School. He and his wife, Sandy, are the parents of three children: Kelly, Megan and Courtney. They have eight grandchildren.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
