Sharman Transfers to Fullerton Office

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Natalie Sharman has transferred to a Full-Time Customer Service Representative at Loup Power District's Fullerton office.

Sharman joined Loup as a part-time CSR in the St. Edward office. In 2019, she was promoted to a full-time CSR serving both the Fullerton and Albion offices. With this transfer, she will work full-time in Fullerton.

As a Customer Service Representative Sharman's responsibilities include greeting customers; processing payments; setting up, transferring, or closing service; taking service calls; and preparing reports.

Sharman is a native of Cambridge and a graduate of Cambridge High School. She attended the University of Nebraska -- Kearney studying business and marketing.

Sharman and her husband, Les, are the parents of two children, Braden and Kinzie. They also own Sharmz Auto Body in Fullerton.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
