Justin M. Kohl Joins Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Justin Kohl has joined Loup Power District as Meter Relay and Equipment Technician at the Columbus Service Center.

In this role, Kohl is a member of the team responsible for installation and maintenance of substation power equipment. He is also responsible for reading meters and completing service orders.

Kohl is a native of Lincoln and a graduate of Lincoln East High School. He received his Associate Degree in Electrical Construction and Control from Northeast Community College. He previously worked for Cornhusker Public Power District.

Kohl and his wife, Abbi, have two children — Ella, 4, and Rhett, 5 months.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
