Tyler Hiner Joins Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Tyler Hiner of Columbus has joined Loup Power District as an Equipment Operator at the Columbus Service Center.

Hiner operates the District's heavy equipment and is part of the crew that performs maintenance on the canal system from Genoa to Columbus. He also works at the two powerhouses when needed, helps build substations, and maintains District parks and lakes.

Hiner is a graduate of Howells High School and Wayne State College. He and his wife, Megan, have a daughter, Addilynn.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
