Rogers Promoted to Lead CSR

COLUMBUS — Rhonda Rogers has been promoted to Lead Customer Service Representative at Loup Power District.

In her new role, she is responsible for organizing the daily activity of the Customer Service Representatives at the Columbus General Office. This includes procedures and system operations scheduling, payment processing and service orders, and account balancing.

Rogers joined Loup in 2015 as a Customer Service Representative at the Columbus General Office and stayed in that position until this promotion.

She is a graduate of Columbus High School and attended Spencer School of Business and Central Community College-Columbus. She has two sons, Aaron and Alec. Aaron and his wife, Sierra, have one daughter, Ayla.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and recreational services in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
