Loup Power District awards scholarships

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Loup Power District has awarded scholarships to five area students who are attending Central Community College in Columbus this fall. The goal is to encourage students to plan careers locally after college.

Selection is based on academic achievement, employment and school activities, personal statement, application, and recommendations.

Scholarship recipients are: Columbus High School — Madison Mulder and Aaliyah Riha; Lakeview High School — Ashton Happ; Scotus Central Catholic — Ally Wemhoff; Twin River High School — Braden Allen.

Loup has presented scholarships to high school graduates in its service territories of Nance, Boone, Colfax, and Platte counties, and a portion of Madison County, for more than 50 years.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and recreational services in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
