Loup Power District awards scholarships

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Loup Power District has awarded scholarships to six area students who are attending Central Community College-Columbus this fall.

Loup Power District scholarships are awarded to high school seniors living in Boone, Colfax, Nance, and Platte Counties, and a portion of Madison County.

Selection is based on academic achievement, employment and school activities, quality of the personal statement, application completeness and recommendations.

Scholarships were awarded to: Columbus High School — Kyson Krepel; Scotus Central Catholic — Noah Bierman; Lakeview High School — Hunter Schoch; Clarkson High School — Bryce Jurgesen; Lindsay Holy Family — Grace Preister; St. Edward High School — Andrew Breceda.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and recreational services in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
