Conner Lusche Joins Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Conner Lusche of Columbus has joined Loup Power District as a Journey Line Technician in Columbus.

In his new role, he is member of the crew that is responsible for the construction, operation, and maintenance of Loup’s electrical transmission and distribution systems and substations in the Columbus Division.

Lusche is a graduate of Scotus Central Catholic High School and earned an associate’s degree from Northeast Community College.

He and his wife, Demi, live in Columbus.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
