Babb marks 30 years at Loup Power

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Roy Babb was recently recognized for 30 years of service to Loup Power District.

Babb joined Loup in 1991 as a Lineman at the Fullerton Retail Operation. He was promoted to Journeyman Lineman in 1993 and was named to his current position of St. Edward Local Superintendent in 1994.

Babb is responsible for overseeing the maintenance and construction of Loup's electric power transmission and distribution system in the St. Edward areas. He also directs customer service in the area.

Babb is a graduate of Fullerton High School. He attended Northeast Community College in Norfolk where he earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Utility Line.

Babb and his wife, Shelly, are the parents of four children — Dustin, Clarissa, Alex, and Griffin.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
