Johnson Promoted at Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Ginny Johnson of Genoa has been promoted to a full-time Customer Service Representative at Loup Power District.

Johnson joined Loup as a part-time Customer Service Representative at the Genoa office and continued in that position until this promotion. She will continue to serve customers in Genoa, but will also work out of the Fullerton office. Genoa's office hours will change to 8 a.m. to noon beginning November 16.

Johnson's responsibilities include greeting customers; processing payments; setting up, transferring, or closing service; taking service calls; and preparing reports.

Johnson is a graduate of Genoa High School. She also took accounting and computer courses at Central Community College -- Columbus. Johnson and her husband, Don, are the parents of four sons: J.J., Andy, Craig, and Scott. They have six grandchildren.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
