Kleckner Transfers to Headworks Operator

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Joe Kleckner of Genoa has transferred to Headworks Operator at Loup Power District.

In his new role, Kleckner will operate and maintain heavy equipment at Loup's Genoa Headworks. His other duties include building discharge pipeline for the dredge, constructing and maintaining dikes in the Headworks discharge area, and other hydro-related tasks.

Kleckner joined Loup in 2008 as a Maintenance Man at the Genoa Headworks. He was promoted to Equipment Operator in 2011 before being named Dredge Operator in 2018.

A native of Genoa, Kleckner is a graduate of Genoa High School. He and his wife, Brooke, are the parents of two children: Ryder and Annabelle.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
