Shanle Retires from Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Shop and Transportation Superintendent Jim Shanle is retiring from Loup Power District after 28 years of service.

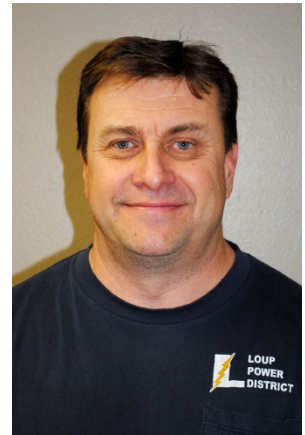

Shanle joined Loup in 1992 as an Engineering Technician II in the Engineering Department at the Columbus General Office. He was promoted to Engineering Technician in 1996 and became Senior Engineering Technician in 2008. In 2012, he was promoted to Shop and Transportation Superintendent and stayed in that role until his retirement.

As Shop and Transportation Superintendent, Shanle provided leadership, supervision, and guidance to all shop personnel responsible for inspecting, maintaining, and repairing District vehicles and associated equipment. He also advised management on standards and specifications for vehicle purchases for the District's fleet.

Shanle is a graduate of Lakeview High School and earned an Associate of Applied Science degree in Diesel Technology from Northeast Community College in Norfolk and an Associate of Applied Science degree in Electrical-Mechanical from Southeast Community College in Milford.

He and his wife, Carrie, have three children: Jesse, Chantel, and Justin.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
