Johnson Marks 25 Years at Loup

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Ginny Johnson of Genoa was recently recognized for 25 years of service to Loup Power District.

Johnson joined Loup in 1994 as a regular part-time Cashier at the Genoa Office. In 2009, the position title was changed to Customer Service Representative. Johnson was promoted to a full-time Customer Service Representative in 2018.

Her responsibilities include greeting customers; processing payments; setting up, transferring, or closing service; taking service calls; and preparing reports.

Johnson is a graduate of Genoa High School. She also took accounting and computer courses at Central Community College-Columbus. Johnson and her husband, Don, are the parents of four sons: J.J., Andy, Craig, and Scott. They have six grandchildren.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
