Linkages Scholarships awarded to CHS Students

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Linkages Scholarships were awarded to six students in the 2020 graduating class at Columbus High School.

The Linkages Program is a nationally recognized program that supports high schools offering a quality program of engineering and technology courses. The Columbus Economic Council, Loup Power District, and local businesses provide support for the program.

The students qualified for the Linkages Scholarship by taking engineering and technical courses. The scholarship can be used at each student's college of choice.

The 2020 Linkages Scholarships were awarded to the following students: Clayton Cerny, Rudy Florian, Xsander Garcia, Sterling Hilton, Justin Holmes, Kaden Hughes.

The following local sponsors provided important financial support to this year's program: Behlen Mfg., Columbus Bank, Columbus Community Hospital, Duo Lift Manufacturing, Pinnacle Bank, SIDUMP'R, and TORIN Products, Inc.

Since its beginning in 2004, the Linkages Program has awarded 198 scholarships totaling $60,775.
