Tom Wood Marks 30 Years of Service

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Tom Wood, Fullerton Division Line Foreman, was recently recognized for 30 years of service to Loup Power District.

Wood joined Loup in 1991 as Apprentice Lineman at Fullerton. He was promoted to Lineman in 1993 and to Journeyman Lineman in 1997. In 2005, Wood was promoted to Line Foreman in the Fullerton Division.

As Line Foreman, Wood is in charge of the construction and maintenance of Loup's electrical transmission and distribution system in the Fullerton Division. This division includes the communities of Fullerton, Belgrade, St. Edward, Cedar Rapids, Primrose, Genoa, and Monroe.

Wood is a graduate of Abraham Lincoln High School in Council Bluffs. He earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree in General Studies with an emphasis in Business from Iowa Western Community College. He earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Utility Line from Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Wood and his wife, Jennifer, have two children: Paige and Tate.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
