Graham joins Loup Power District

COLUMBUS, Neb. — Drew Graham has joined Loup Power District as a Utilityman based out of the Columbus Service Center.

In his role as Utilityman, Graham's duties include servicing the District's rental water heaters, delivering interoffice mail, and assisting on other projects as needed.

Graham is a native of Silver Creek and graduated from Twin River High School. He earned a degree in Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning/Refrigeration from Northeast Community College.

He and his wife, Jordan, live in Columbus.

ABOUT LOUP POWER DISTRICT: For more than 80 years, Loup Power District has provided reliable, low-cost electricity to customers in Boone, Colfax, Nance and Platte Counties and part of Madison County. The District also provides economic development and five parks in these areas. More information about Loup is available at www.loup.com.
